Girl's Manhigut Head

The Manhigut Head cultivates leadership skills in the oldest campers, helping them grow as role models and contributing members of the camp community. This role ensures that their programming balances responsibility, fun, and mentorship opportunities.

Pre-Camp Responsibilities

- Develop the daily schedule for campers entering 10th grade, incorporating work days, fun activities, and leadership opportunities.
- Collaborate with the Head Counselor to integrate Manhigut campers into staff-support roles as appropriate.

In-Camp Responsibilities

- Mentor Manhigut campers in leadership and staff-focused roles, supporting their development and success.
- Advocate for the needs and perspectives of Manhigut campers within the broader camp program.
- Plan and oversee the fun components of their program, ensuring a balance of work and play.
- Supervise their participation in Color War and other camp-wide events.
